INDEX TO QUARTERLY REPORT ON FORM 10-Q
FOR THE QUARTER ENDED JUNE 30, 2023

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), that are not historical facts and involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expected and projected. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this Form 10-Q including, without limitation, statements in this “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” regarding the Actelis Networks Inc.’s (the “Company”, “we”) financial position, business strategy and the plans and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. Words such as “expect,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “seek” and variations and similar words and expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements relate to future events or future performances, but reflect management’s current beliefs, based on information currently available. A number of factors could cause actual events, performances or results to differ materially from the events, performance and results discussed in the forward-looking statements. For information identifying important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements, please refer to Part II, Item 1A of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the Risk Factors section of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022, filed on March 29, 2023, with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). The Company’s securities filings can be accessed on the EDGAR section of the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov.

In addition, forward-looking statements contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q include, but are not limited to, statements about:

- our ability to protect our intellectual property and continue to innovate;
- our success in retaining or recruiting, or changes required in, our officers, key employees or directors following our offering;
- the potential insufficiency of our disclosure controls and procedures to detect errors or acts of fraud;
- the accuracy of our estimates regarding expenses, future revenues, capital requirements and needs for additional financing;
- the success of competing products or technologies that are or may become available;
- our potential ability to obtain additional financing;
- our ability to grow the business due to the uncertainty resulting from the recent COVID-19 pandemic or any future pandemic;
- our ability to comply with complex and increasing regulations by governmental authorities;
- our ability to maintain continued listing of our securities listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market;
- our public securities’ potential liquidity and trading;
- our expectations regarding the period during which we qualify as an emerging growth company under the JOBS Act;
- our anticipated use of the proceeds from our initial public offering (“IPO”) and subsequent equity finncings; and
- our financial performance following the date hereof.

We may not actually achieve the plans, intentions or expectations disclosed in our forward-looking statements, and you should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Actual results or events could differ materially from the plans, intentions and expectations disclosed in the forward-looking statements we make. In addition, statements that “we believe” and similar statements reflect our beliefs and opinions on the relevant subject. Forward-looking statements are based on our management’s current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about our business and the industry in which we operate and our management’s beliefs and assumptions, and are not guarantees of future performance or development and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that are in some cases beyond our control. These statements are based upon information available to us as of the date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and while we believe such information forms a reasonable basis for such statements, such information may be limited or incomplete, and our statements should not be read to indicate that we have conducted an exhaustive inquiry into, or review of, all potentially available relevant information. As a result, any or all of our forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q may turn out to be inaccurate.

The forward-looking statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q speak only as of the date of this filing. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee that future results, levels of activity, performance and events and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements will be achieved or will occur. Except as required by law, we assume no obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available in the future. You should, however, review the factors and risks we describe in the reports we will file from time to time with the SEC after the date hereof.

ACTELIS NETWORKS, INC.
NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

NOTE 1 - GENERAL:

a. Actelis Networks, Inc. (hereafter -the Company) was established in 1998, under the laws of the state of Delaware. The Company has a wholly-owned subsidiary in Israel, Actelis Networks Israel Ltd. (hereafter – the Subsidiary). The Company is engaged in the design, development, manufacturing, and marketing of cyber hardened, hybrid fiber, copper networking solutions for IoT and Telecommunication companies. The Company's customers include providers of telecommunication services and enterprises as well as resellers of the Company's products. On May 12, 2022, the Company accepted a notification of effectiveness from the SEC, and on May 17 completed its IPO. See note 2 below for further details.

b. In December 2019, a novel coronavirus disease, or COVID-19, was first reported and on March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization characterized COVID-19 as a pandemic. The widespread health crisis is adversely affecting the broader economies, financial markets and overall demand environment for many of the Company’s products.

   The Company’s operations and the operations of the Company’s suppliers, channel partners and customers were disrupted to varying degrees by a range of external factors related to the COVID-19 pandemic, some of which are not within the Company’s control. Many governments imposed, and may yet impose, a wide range of restrictions on the physical movement of people in order to limit the spread of COVID-19. The COVID-19 pandemic has had, and likely will continue to have, an impact on the attendance and productivity of the Company’s employees, and those of our suppliers, channel partners or customers, resulting in negative impacts to the Company’s results of operations and overall financial performance. We suffered delays in realization of certain new orders from customers, delay in testing of some new technologies in customer premises and difficulty conducting business development activities in an effective way (face-to-face). In addition, we had to increase credit lines by $2.0 million in 2021 to support the loss of revenue and profit. Additionally, COVID-19 has resulted, and likely will continue to result, in delays in non-residential construction, non-crisis-related IT purchases, electronic components including chip manufacturing and project completion schedules in general, all of which can negatively impact results in both current and future periods.

   The duration and extent of the impact from the COVID-19 pandemic or any future epidemic or pandemic depends on future developments that cannot be accurately predicted at this time, such as the severity and transmission rate of the virus, the extent and effectiveness of containment actions, the effects of measures enacted by policy makers and central banks around the globe, and the impact of these and other factors on the Company’s employees, customers, channel partners and suppliers. If we are not able to respond to and manage the impact of such events effectively, our business will be affected.

c. The Company has incurred significant losses and negative cash flows from operations and incurred losses of $3,488 and $10,982 for the six months ended June 30, 2023 and the year ended December 31, 2022, respectively. During the six months ended June 30, 2023 and the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company had negative cash flows from operations of $2,939 and $7,768, respectively. As of June 30, 2023, the Company’s accumulated deficit was $36,890. The Company has funded its operations to date through equity financing and has cash on hand (including short term deposits and restricted bank deposits) of $3,836 and long-term deposits, restricted bank deposits and restricted cash of $4,444 as of June 30, 2023. The Company monitors its cash flow projections on a current basis and takes active measures to obtain the funding it requires to continue its operations. However, these cash flow projections are subject to various uncertainties concerning their fulfilment such as the ability to increase revenues by attracting and expanding its customer base or reducing cost structure. If the Company is not successful in generating sufficient cash flow or completing additional financing, then it will need to execute a cost reduction plan that has been prepared. The Company’s transition to profitable operations is dependent on generating a level of revenue adequate to support its cost structure. The Company expects to fund operations using cash on hand, through operational cash flows and raising additional proceeds. There are no assurances, however, that the Company will be able to generate the revenue necessary to support its cost structure or that it will be successful in obtaining the level of financing necessary for its operations. Management has evaluated the significance of these conditions and the time in which it has to accomplish them and has determined that the Company has sufficient resources to meet its operating obligations for at least one year from the issuance date of these condensed consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 2– INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING (*):

On May 17, 2022, the Company finalized its IPO offering of an aggregate of 421,250 shares of common stock, including the partial exercise by the underwriter of its option to purchase 46,250 additional shares of common stock, at a price to the public of $40.00 per share.

The net proceeds from the offering, including the over-allotment, to the Company were approximately $15.4 million, after deducting underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses amounting to approximately $1.0 million.

As a result of the IPO, the Company issued common stock in the transactions described below:

1) Redeemable convertible preferred stock - the Company issued 773,108 shares of common stock on a one (1) for one (1) basis, pursuant to the conversion provisions of the Series A and Series B redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock agreements. Upon the conversion, the Company reclassified the redeemable Convertible Preferred stock at its carrying amount, from temporary equity, into shareholders’ equity.

2) Convertible loan agreement (“CLA”) (see Note 8) – the Company issued 163,816 shares of common stock. pursuant to the conversion features of the loan agreement.

   Upon such issuance, the Company reclassified the Convertible loan’s carrying amount (which reflected its then current fair value), into shareholders’ equity.

3) Convertible notes (see Note 7) –The Company issued 90,009 shares of common stock pursuant to the conversion features of the note agreements issued during December 2021 and April 2022.

4) Warrants (See Note 9):

1. The Company issued 61,756 shares of common stock as a result of the exercise provisions of the detachable warrants granted to Mizrahi-Tefahot Bank as part of the Company's financing agreement with Bank Mizrahi.

2. The Company issued 18,000 shares of common stock to Migdalor as a result of the exercise provisions of the detachable warrants granted to Migdalor as part of the loan agreement with Migdalor.

3. In addition, concurrently with the IPO and in connection with the consummation of the IPO, the Company issued common stock warrants to the underwriters. The warrants are exercisable into 29,487 of the Company's common shares for an exercise price of $50 per share and can be exercised at any time during a period of 5 years from the issuance date (i.e. until May 17, 2027). The warrants are classified as equity based on the guidance provided under ASC 718-10.

   As of the issuance date of the underwriter warrants, the fair value of the warrants was estimated at $145. The valuation was based on a Black-Scholes option-pricing model, using an expected volatility of 54%, a risk-free rate of 3.01%, a contractual term of 5 years, an expected dividend yield of 0% and a stock price at the issuance date of $19.50.

5) The Company redeemed 178,377 shares of non-voting common stock at their par value, removing the stock from shareholders' equity.

(*) Adjusted to reflect reverse stock split, see note 3(f).

NOTE 3 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

a) Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Article 10 of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC")'s Regulation S-X. As permitted under those rules, certain footnotes and other financial information that are normally required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP") can be condensed or omitted. These financial statements reflect all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair statement of its financial position as of and for the periods presented. These condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto are unaudited and should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. The results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, are not necessarily indicative of results that could be expected for the 2023 fiscal year or any other interim period or for any other future year. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

b) Use of estimates in preparation of financial statements

The preparation of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The Company evaluates on an ongoing basis its assumptions, including those related to contingencies, fair values of financial instruments, inventory write-offs, as well as in estimates used in applying the revenue recognition policy. The Company's management believes that the estimates, judgments, and assumptions used are reasonable based upon information available at the time they are made. These estimates, judgments and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

c) Revenue recognition

The Company's products consist of hardware and an embedded software that function together to deliver the product's essential functionality. The embedded software is essential to the functionality of the Company's products. The Company's products are sold with a two-year warranty for repairs or replacements of the product in the event of damage or failure during the term of the support period, which is accounted for as a standard warranty. Services relating to repair or replacement of hardware beyond the standard warranty period are offered under renewable, fee-based contracts and include telephone support, remote diagnostics, and access to on-site technical support personnel.

The Company also offers its customers other management software. The Company sells its other non-embedded software either as perpetual or as term-based licenses.

The Company provides, to certain customers, software updates that it chooses to develop, which the Company refers to as unspecified software updates, and enhancements related to the Company's management software through support service contracts. The Company also offers its customers product support services which include telephone support, remote diagnostics and access to on-site technical support personnel.

The Company's customers are comprised of resellers, system integrators and distributors.

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

The Company follows five steps to record revenue: (i) identify the contract with a customer; (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract; (iii) determine the transaction price; (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) it satisfies its performance obligations.

Performance obligations promised in a contract are identified based on the goods or services that will be transferred to the customer that are both capable of being distinct, whereby the customer can benefit from the good or service either on its own or together with other resources that are readily available from third parties or from the Company, and are distinct in the context of the contract, whereby the transfer of the goods or services is separately identifiable from other promises in the contract.

The transaction price is determined based on the consideration to which the Company will be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to the customer. The Company's contracts do not include additional discounts once product price is set, right of returns, significant financing components or any forms of variable consideration.

The Company uses the practical expedient and does not assess the existence of a significant financing component when the difference between payment and revenue recognition is less than a year. The Company's service period is for one year and is paid for either up front or on a quarterly basis.

Sales of products

Most of the Company's contracts are of a single performance obligation (sales of the product with a standard warranty) thus the entire transaction price is allocated to the single performance obligation. In addition, the Company also sells separate services such as product support service and extended warranty.

Sales of software with related services

The Company sells perpetual management software and term-based licenses for its management software together with related services. The perpetual management software stand-alone selling price is established by taking into consideration available information such as historical selling prices of the perpetual license, geographic location, and market conditions. For contracts that contain more than one identified performance obligation (a term-based license for its management software together with related services), the stand- alone selling price of a term-based license, is based on a ratio from the relevant perpetual management software stand-alone selling price. The stand-alone selling price of the related service is then determined by applying the residual method.

Revenue from selling the Company's product and/or the software management (either as term-based or perpetual) is recognized at a point in time which is typically at the time of shipment of products to the customer or when the code is transferred, respectively. Revenue from services (e.g., product support service, software support service or extended warranty) is recognized on a straight-line basis over the service period, as a time-based measure of progress best reflects our performance in satisfying this performance obligation.

d) Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value measurements are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Quoted prices in markets that are not active, or inputs which are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

The following table represents the fair value hierarchy for the Company's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of:

		Fair value measurements at June 30, 2023
Description	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Liabilities:
Warrants (See Note 9)	$ 8	$ -	$ -	$ 8
Warrants (See Note 11(d))	$ 1,576	$ -	$ -	$ 1,576

		Fair value measurements at December 31, 2022
Description	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Liabilities:
Warrants (See Note 9)	$ 8	$ -	$ -	$ 8

As of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, the fair values of the Company's cash, cash equivalents, short and long-term deposits, trade receivables, trade payables, long-term loan, restricted cash and restricted bank deposits approximated the carrying values of these instruments presented in the Company's consolidated balance sheets because of their nature.

e) Concentration of risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, and trade receivables. Cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash are placed with banks and financial institutions in the United States and Israel.

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

Management believes that the financial institutions that hold the Company's investments are financially sound and, accordingly, present minimal credit risk with respect to those investments.

The Company's trade receivables are derived primarily from telecommunication operators, the Company's reseller customers and enterprises located mainly in the United States, Europe, and Asia.

Credit risk with respect to trade receivables exists to the full extent of the amounts presented in the condensed consolidated financial statements.

Accounts receivable have been reduced by an allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company maintains the allowance for estimated losses resulting from the inability of the Company's customers to make required payments. The allowance represents the current estimate of lifetime expected credit losses over the remaining duration of existing accounts receivable considering current market conditions and supportable forecasts when appropriate. The estimate is a result of the Company's ongoing evaluation of collectability.

The Company has major customers, representing as follows:

1. Customer A represented 26% and 5% of the Company Trade receivables balance as of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

2. Customer B represented 14% and 3% of the Company Trade receivables balance as of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

3. Customer C represented 13% and 29% of the Company Trade receivables balance as of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

4. Customer D represented 0% and 23% of the Company Trade receivables balance as of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

5. Customer E represented 0% and 10% of the Company Trade receivables balance as of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

The Company does not see any credit risk regarding the major trade receivable balance, as most of the remaining balance was paid off after the balance sheet date.

f) Reverse split

On April 15, 2022, the Company's Board of Directors approved a Reverse Stock Split in the ratio of forty-six to-one. The Reverse Stock split became effective as of May 2, 2022. On March 8 ,2023, the Company's Board of Directors approved an additional Reverse Stock Split in the ratio of ten-to-one. The Reverse Stock split became effective as of April 18, 2023.

The Company accounted for the Reverse Stock Splits on a retroactive basis pursuant to ASC 260. As a result, all common stock, Non-voting Common stock, redeemable Convertible Preferred stock and options outstanding and exercisable for common stock, exercise prices and loss per share amounts have been adjusted, on a retroactive basis, for all periods presented in these condensed consolidated financial statements and the applicable disclosures, to reflect such Reverse Stock Split.

NOTE 4 - INVENTORIES:

	June 30, 2023	December 31, 2022
Raw materials	$ 969	$ 593
Finished goods	$ 839	$ 586
	$ 1,808	$ 1,179

Inventory write-downs totaled to $97 and $147 during the six months ended June 30, 2023, and the year ended December 31, 2022, respectively.

NOTE 5 - LEASES:

The Company's Israeli subsidiary has an operating lease agreement for a facility in Israel, which expired onApril 30, 2023. The Company did not have an option for extending the lease agreement. On May 15, 2023, the Company extended the lease agreement for an additional six months, until October 31, 2023. The lease payments are denominated in ILS and are indexed to the consumer price index.

NOTE 6 - LOANS:

a. As a result of the COVID pandemic, the US and Israeli governments offered different programs of financial aid. The Company participated in the following programs:

On July 1, 2020, the Company received funding from an American Bank under the Small Business Administration COVID19 EIDL Program in the total of $150. The loan bears interest of 3.75% per annum, the principal shall be repaid in 360 equal monthly payments starting January 1, 2023, unless forgiven per program regulations (the "EIDL Loan").

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

b. On December 9, 2020, the Company signed a new loan agreement with an Israeli based financial institution for a loan of up to 20 million NIS ("New Israeli Shekel") (an amount of $6,000) (the "New Loan"). The Company received $3,000 on December 2020, and additional $2,000 in January 2021. The loan bears interest of 9.6% per annum. The interest shall first be paid in 12 payments starting February 1, 2021. Starting February 1, 2022, the loan principal and interest shall be repaid in 72 equal payments, plus a one-time interest payment after the 36th month.

As part of the loan agreement, the Company issued the new Lender warrants to acquire common stock in the amount of $1,500 (see Note 9 regarding the warrants granted).

In November 2021, the Company received additional funding in the amount of $1,000 from the New Lender. The loan bears interest of 9.6% per annum. Starting February 1, 2022, the loan principal and interest shall be repaid in 72 equal monthly payments, plus a onetime interest payment after the 24th month. The Company increased the value of the warrant issued to the New Lender to $1,800 (see also Note 9). As of June 30, 2023, the total loan balance outstanding was $4,522 (including $1,215 current maturities).

The loan covenants (the "covenants") include a debt to EBITDA minimum ratio or a coverage ratio of the loan by current assets.

On December 21, 2022, pursuant to the terms of the loan Agreement, the Company deposited $2 million to a Company-owned interest-bearing bank account, or the "designated account" (as defined in the Agreement), to satisfy the required obligation associated with the loan agreement. An additional $2 million was deposited in the designated account by June 30, 2023.

As of June 30, 2023, the Company was in compliance with the covenants.

As of June 30, 2023, future payments are summarized as follows:

	EIDL Loan	New Loan from December 2020 and January 2021- In NIS *	New Loan from November 2021 - In NIS *
2023 ()	3	1,842($498)	351($95)

* The exchange rate used in translation is $1 – 3.7 NIS.
 excluding the six months ended June 30, 2023.

NOTE 7 - CONVERTIBLE NOTE:

During December 2021 to April 2022, the Company offered up to $3,000 of the Company's 6% convertible note where both principal and 6% annual interest are due three years from the date of execution (the "Notes"). The Notes were subject to optional and mandatory conversion into shares of the Company's Common stock, $0.0001 par value. In January 2022 the Company performed a first closing of $2,100 convertible notes out of the $3,000 offered, and in April 2022, a second closing of $60 convertible notes, which private placement was completed pursuant to an exemption from registration under Rule 506(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act") and was funded by this amount (less fees and expenses). The notes were convertible at any time by the holders into common stock and automatically converted to common stock upon the consummation of an Initial Public Offering ("IPO") at a 40% discounted conversion price.

The Notes had an optional conversion price at a 40% discount based on a $50m value in the event that an IPO is not consummated and if an IPO is not consummated within 18 months of the issuance of the Notes, the value of the Notes would be set at 110% of their then balance.

Prior to the IPO, discussed further in Note 2, the Company determined that the predominant scenario was the IPO event. The Company measured the convertible note in its entirety at fair value with changes in fair value recognized as financial income or loss in accordance with ASC 480-10. On May 17, 2022, the Company finalized its IPO, as discussed in Note 2 and the notes were converted into the Company's common stock. The following table presents a roll forward of the fair value of the Notes in the year ended December 31, 2022:

	December 31, 2022
Fair value at the beginning of the period	$ -
Additions	1,847
Change in fair value reported in statement of comprehensive loss	1,753
Conversion to the Company's common stock	(3,600)
Fair value at the end of the period	$ -

The Company recorded other expense (income) associated with the Notes during the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, and June 30, 2022, in the amount of $0, $0, $678 and $1,753, respectively.

NOTE 8 - CONVERTIBLE LOAN:

On March 28, 2017, the Company entered into a convertible loan agreement (the "CLA") in an aggregate principal amount of up to $2,000. Loans under this agreement bear interest of 10% per annum. Following an amendment in March 2022, which was approved by the required majority of the CLA holders, the maturity date of the CLA was established to be the earlier of (i) January 1, 2023, (ii) event of default (as defined in the Agreement) or (iii) deemed liquidation event (as defined in the Company's certificate of incorporation), in which the lenders are entitled to receive an amount equal to 300% of the principal amount of the loan.

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

The valuation was performed under alternative scenarios of consummating an IPO or remaining private.

Upon the consummation of the IPO, the CLA was automatically converted into the Company's common stock based on its contractual terms and conditions. For further information, see Note 2 above.

The following is a roll forward of the fair values:

	Year ended December 31 2022
Fair value at the beginning of the year	$ 4,905
Change in fair value reported in statement of comprehensive loss	1,648
Conversion to the Company's common stock	(6,553)
Fair value at the end of the period	$ -

The Company recorded other expense (income) associated with the CLA during the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, and June 30, 2022, in the amount of $0, $0, $682 and $1,648.

NOTE 9 – WARRANTS (*):

a) On August 24, 2016, the Company issued warrants to Comerica Bank ("Comerica") for the purchase of7,305 shares of the Company's Series B Redeemable Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $10.2672 per share contemporaneously with obtaining a loan from Comerica which was fully repaid in 2018 (the "Comerica Warrants"). The Comerica Warrants are exercisable at any time during the contract period which ends on August 24, 2026.

Additionally, in connection with the consummation of the IPO and the change of the type of the stock from redeemable preferred stock to common stock at conversion, the Company reassessed the Comerica Warrants. As part of the contractual terms and conditions of Comerica's Warrants, a portion of the warrants are exercisable, as of the IPO date, into the Company's common stock. The Comerica Warrants are still outstanding as of March 31, 2023. The Company has evaluated whether the Comerica Warrants are still classified as liabilities and concluded that due to a change-of-control provision which may affect the exercise price or entitle Comerica to demand cash, instead of shares, to settle the warrants, Comerica's Warrants will continue to be classified as liabilities and will be exercisable into the Company's common shares.

b) During the period from February 2018 through November 2020, the Company issued warrants to Mizrahi-Tefahot Bank ("Mizrahi") contemporaneously with obtaining a loan and a credit facility. The warrants are convertible into series B convertible redeemable preferred stock or common stock in a qualified financing round. The number of series B convertible redeemable preferred stock is determined by the lesser of (1) dividing the warrant amount (as determined under the contract) by the applicable exercise price which depends on the triggering event as established in the contract, or (2) the lowest stock purchase price in a qualified financing round.

c) During December 2020 and November 2021, the Company issued warrants to Migdalor contemporaneously with obtaining a loan. The warrants can either be (1) converted into the Company's common stock (the number of which shall be determined based on the warrant amount established in the contract and the Company's valuation as defined in the contract, or based on a triggering event), at any time during a period of 96 months), or (2) redeemed for cash based on the lesser of a predetermined amount or a formula as set in the contract, at any time and in Migdalor's own discretion, during a period of 96 months from the date of issue. These warrants were classified as liabilities mainly due to the redemption feature over the options.

Upon the consummation of the IPO (as further described in Note 2 above), the Company converted the outstanding warrants issued to Mizrahi and Migdalor into the Company's common stock based on the contractual terms and conditions of the related warrant agreements.

d) On May 8, 2023, the Company completed a fund-raising round. Upon the consummation of the Offering and pursuant to an agreement entered into with the Holder and the underwriter, the Company issued warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock. See note 11(d) and 11(e) for further details.

The table below shows the impact on the statement of comprehensive loss related to the warrants for the periods ended:

	June 30, 2023	December 31, 2022
Outstanding as of January 1	8	2,149
Additions	1,972	-
Fair value changes	(396)	1,049
Conversion to the Company's common stock	-	(3,190)
Outstanding at the end of the period	1,584	8

The Company recorded other expense (income) during the three and six months ended June 30, 2023 and June 30, 2022, in the amount of $(396), $(396), $57 and $1,115, respectively, in connection with these warrants.

(*) Adjusted to reflect April 2023 reverse stock split, see note 3(f).

NOTE 10 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

The Company is obligated to repay certain research and development grants received from the Government of Israel in the form of a royalty rate on future sales of products derived from the funded research and development activities. The aggregate amount of royalties to be paid is determined based on 100% of the total grants received for qualified projects plus interest based on LIBOR. The Company may be required to pay royalties based on previous years funding in periods after June 30, 2023, for the future sale of product that includes technology developed and funded with these research and development grants received to date.

As of June 30, 2023, the Company had received approximately $14,300 (approximately $15,500 including LIBOR) and repaid approximately $10,000 in such grants.

During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company paid an amount of $221, due in regard to previous years.

As of June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, the Company had a liability to pay royalties in the amount of approximately $996 and $900, respectively.

NOTE 11 – SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY (*):

a. Change in authorized stock

On May 2, 2022, the Company's Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Company's Bylaws, stating the number of authorized stock to be increased, as described below:

a. Common stock- $0.0001 par value – authorized shares increase to 30,000,000 shares from 11,009, 315 shares.

b. Non-voting common stock- $0.0001 par value-authorized shares remain 2,803,774 shares.

c. Preferred stock- $0.0001 par value - authorized shares increase to 10,000,000 shares from 7,988,691 shares.

b. On May 16, 2022, the Company filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware an amended and restated certificate of incorporation (the "A&R COI"), which became effective immediately. The A&R COI did not change the Company's authorized shares of common stock and preferred stock of 42,803,774 authorized shares of common stock., 2,803,774 shares of non-voting common stock and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

c. During January and February 2023, the Company purchased 7,920 shares of its common stock, for a total price of $50. (Total of 10,690 common stock are held by the company as treasury shares).

d. Offering of common stocks and warrants

On May 8, 2023, the Company completed a fund-raising round in a total gross amount of $3.5 million pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue and sell to Armistice Capital Master Fund Ltd. (the "Holder") in a private placement (the "Offering"):

1. 190,000 shares of the Company's common stock, $0.0001 par value;

2. 754,670 pre-funded warrants (the "Pre-Funded Warrants") to purchase up to 754,670 shares of Common Stock for an exercise price of $0.0001 which are exercisable (either physically or on net-cash basis at the Holder's discretion) immediately upon their issuance until their full exercise. Their exercise price is adjustable upon dilutive events (such as subsequent rights offerings, pro-rata distributions and stock dividends and splits). The Holder also has certain rights upon a fundamental transaction (as defined in the agreement) as specified in the agreement. The warrants were classified as equity pursuant to ASC 815-40.; and

3. warrants to purchase up to 944,670 shares of Common Stock ("Common Warrants") for an exercise price of $3.58 which are exercisable (physically or upon occurrence of certain events on net-cash basis at the Holder's discretion) immediately upon their issuance until November 8 2028. Their exercise price is adjustable upon dilutive events (such as subsequent rights offerings, pro-rata distributions and stock dividends and splits). The Holder also possesses a right to receive any additional consideration that holders of common stocks may be entitled to upon a fundamental transaction (as defined in the agreement).

   The Company determined that the Common Warrants are not indexed to the Company's own stock and therefore are precluded from equity classification. The Common Warrants will be measured at fair value at inception and in subsequent reporting periods with changes in fair value recognized as financial income or expense as change in fair value of warrant liabilities in the period of change in the condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

The Common Warrants were recorded at fair value on May 8, 2023, at $1,972 and were remeasured at a fair value of $1,576 on June 30, 2023, and are classified as a long-term liability on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet, and the residual value allocated to the common stock and pre-funded warrants are classified as equity.

The valuation was based on a Black-Scholes option-pricing model, using an expected volatility of 54%, a risk-free rate of 3.49%, a contractual term of 5.5 years and a stock price at the issuance date of $3.70.

The Company recorded other income (expenses) during the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, in the amount of $396, in connection with the revaluation of these warrants to their fair value.

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

e. Offering Costs related to May 2023 fund-raising round

Upon the consummation of the Offering and pursuant to an agreement entered into with H.C. Wainwright & Co., LLC (the "Underwriter"), the Company has paid in cash to the Underwriter (and the escrow agent) a total amount of $291. The Company has also granted to the Underwriter upon the consummation of the Offering, warrants to purchase up to 66,127 of the Company's common stocks which carry the same terms as the common stock warrants described above (Note 11d3.), except for the exercise price which reflect 125% of the share price in the Offering ($4.6313). The warrants are classified as mezzanine equity based on the guidance provided under ASC 480-10-S99-3A and SAB Topic 14. E.

As of the issuance date of the underwriter warrants, the fair value of the warrants was estimated at $104. The valuation was based on a Black-Scholes option-pricing model, using an expected volatility of 56%, a risk-free rate of 3.29%, a contractual term of 5.5 years and a stock price at the issuance date of 3.58.

Out of the total offering costs, an amount of $223 related to the issuance of the Common Warrants was recognized as a financial expense in the Condensed Consolidated statement of comprehensive loss, and an amount of $172 related to the issuance of the Common stocks and the prefunded warrants was recognized in equity.

The allocation of total offering costs between the warrants, common stocks and prefunded warrants was in the same proportion as the allocation of the total proceed from the offering.

During July and August 2023, the Holder elected to exercise 754,670 of the pre-funded warrant. See note 15b.

f. Share-based compensation:

1) A summary of the Company's share options, granted to employees, directors, under option plans is as follows:

See also Note 2 above regarding warrants granted to the underwriters upon the consummation of the IPO in consideration for their underwriting services.

2) Restricted Stock Units (*):

During the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company issued 32,100 RSUs to officers and employees.

The RSUs are vested over a three-year period.

The grant-date fair value of the RSUs granted was based on the Company's common stock price at the time of grant.

The following table summarize information as of June 30, 2023, regarding the number of RSUs outstanding:

	June 30, 2023
	Number of RSUs		Weighted-Average Grant Date Fair Value
RSUs outstanding at the beginning of the year	59,200	$	16.2
Granted during the period	32,100		3.24
Exercised during the period	(8,337)		29.85
Forfeited during the period	(1,600)		4.8
Outstanding as of June 30, 2023	81,363	$	11.65

(*) Adjusted to reflect April 2023 reverse stock split, see note 3(f).

NOTE 12 - BASIC AND DILUTED LOSS PER SHARE (*):

Basic net loss per share is computed using the weighted average number of shares of common stock and pre-funded warrants and fully vested RSUs outstanding during the period, net of treasury shares. In computing diluted loss per share, basic loss per share is adjusted to take into account the potential dilution that could occur upon: (i) the exercise of options and non-vested RSUs granted under employee stock compensation plans, and the exercise of warrants using the treasury stock method; and (ii) the conversion of the convertible redeemable preferred stock, and convertible loan using the "if-converted" method, by adding to net loss the change in the fair value of the convertible loan, net of tax benefits, and by adding the weighted average number of shares issuable upon assumed conversion of these instruments. For further details on the effects on the instruments described below, please see note 2 above.

Options to purchase 93,708 and 86,701 shares of common stock at an average exercise price of $4.81 and $1.21 per share were outstanding as of June 30, 2023, and June 30, 2022, respectively, but were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because to do so would have had antidilutive effect on the basic loss per share.

U.S. DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS

RSU's to purchase 81,363 shares of common stock at an average grant date fair value of $11.65 per share were outstanding as of June 30, 2023, but were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because to do so would have had antidilutive effect on the basic loss per share.

Warrants convertible into 1,047,589 and 7,736 of the Company's common stock were outstanding as of June 30, 2023, and 2022 but were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because to do so would have had an antidilutive effect on the basic loss per share.

(*) Adjusted to reflect April 2023 reverse stock split, see note 3(f).

Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2023, Compared to Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2022

Revenues

Our revenues for the three months ended June 30, 2023 amounted to $1.9 million, compared to $3.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2022. The decrease from the corresponding period was primarily attributable to a decrease of $1.3 million of revenues generated from North America and Asia Pacific, offset by an increase of $0.1 million in revenues generated from Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

Our revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $3.74 million, compared to $4.95 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The decrease from the corresponding period was primarily attributable to a decrease of $1.3 million in revenues generated from North America and Europe, the Middle East and Africa, offset by an increase of $0.1 million in revenues generated from Asia Pacific.

Cost of Revenues

Our cost of revenues for the three months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $1.3 million compared to $1.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2022. The increase from the corresponding period was primarily attributable to change in the product mix.

Our cost of revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2023 amounted to $2.4 million compared to $2.45 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022.

Research and Development Expenses

Our research and development expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $0.7 million compared to $0.7 million for the three months ended

June 30, 2022.

Our research and development expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $1.4 million compared to $1.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The increase was mainly due to an increase in payroll expenses for research and development personnel in the amount of $25,000, and an increase in professional services related to research and development in the amount of $51,000.

Sales and Marketing Expenses

Our sales and marketing expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $0.7 million compared to $0.8 for the three months ended June 30, 2022. The decrease was mainly due to a decrease in commission expenses.

Our sales and marketing expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $1.6 million compared to $1.6 for the six months ended June 30, 2022.

General and Administrative Expenses

Our general and administrative expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2023 amounted to $0.97 million compared to $1.07 million for the three months ended June 30, 2022. The decrease is driven by cost reduction measures.

Our general and administrative expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2023, amounted to $1.8 million compared to $1.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023. This increase was mainly due to payroll, insurance expenses and professional services expenses, in connection with our IPO completed in May 2022 and those costs associated with being a public company.

Operating Loss

Our operating loss for the three months ended June 30, 2023, was $1.7 million, compared to an operating loss of $0.7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2022. The increase was mainly due to the decrease in revenues and gross margin.

Our operating loss for the six months ended June 30, 2023, was $3.6 million, compared to an operating loss of $2.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The increase was mainly due to the decreases in revenues and gross margin.

Financial Expenses, Net

Our financial income, net for the three months ended June 30, 2023 was $0.1 million (including $0.2 million interest expenses) compared to financial expenses, net of $1.0 million (including $0.2 million interest expenses) for the three months ended June 30, 2022. During the three months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recorded financial income in connection with a decrease in fair value of warrants in the amount of $0.4 million, compared to an increase in fair value of various financial instruments prior to the IPO completed in May 2022, such as a convertible loan, note and warrants in the amount of $1.4 million, for the three months ended June 30, 2022. In addition, the Company recorded income in the amount of $0.1 from exchange rate differences during the three months ended June 30, 2023, compared to $0.5 million, during the three months ended June 30, 2022.

Our financial income, net for the six months ended June 30, 2023, was $0.1 million (including $0.35 million interest expenses) compared to financial expenses, net of $4.2 million (including $0.4 million interest expenses) for the six months ended June 30, 2022. During the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recorded financial income in connection with a decrease in fair value of warrants in the amount of $0.4 million, compared to an increase in fair value of various financial instruments prior to the IPO completed in May 2022, such as a convertible loan, note and warrants in the amount of $4.5 million. In addition, the Company recorded income in the amount of $0.25 million from exchange rate differences, compared to $0.65 during the three months ended June 30, 2022.

Net Loss

Our net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2023, was $1.6 million, compared to net loss of $1.7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2022.

Our net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2023, was $3.5 million, compared to net loss of $6.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in revenues and gross margin as well as a decrease in financial expenses, resulting from the conversion of the financial instruments the Company had such as a convertible loan, note and warrants from the IPO completed in May 2022.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

Non-GAAP Adjusted EBITDA, and backlog of customer open orders are Non-GAAP financial measures. In addition to reporting financial results in accordance with GAAP, we provide Non-GAAP operating results adjusted for certain items, including: financial expenses, which are interest, financial instrument fair value adjustments, exchange rate differences of assets and liabilities, stock based compensation expenses, depreciation and amortization expense, tax expense, and impact of development expenses ahead of product launch. We adjust for the items listed above and show non-GAAP financial measures in all periods presented, unless the impact is clearly immaterial to our financial statements. When we calculate the tax effect of the adjustments, we include all current and deferred income tax expense commensurate with the adjusted measure of pre-tax profitability.

We utilize the adjusted results to review our ongoing operations without the effect of these adjustments but not for comparison to budgeted operating results. We reference measures of performance that cannot yet be reflected in our financial results such as backlog of customer open orders. We believe the supplemental adjusted results are useful to investors because they help them compare our results to previous periods and provide important insights into underlying trends in the business and how management oversees and optimizes our business operations on a day-to-day basis. We exclude the costs in calculating adjusted results to allow us and investors to evaluate the performance of the business based upon its expected ongoing operating structure. We believe the adjusted measures, accompanied by the disclosure of the costs of these programs, provides valuable insight to our financial performance. Adjusted results should be considered only in conjunction with results reported according to GAAP.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Since our inception, we have financed our operations primarily through the sale of equity securities, debt financing, convertible loans and royalty-bearing grants that we received from the Israel Innovation Authority. Our primary requirements for liquidity and capital are to finance working capital, capital expenditures and general corporate purposes. We also received proceeds of $15.4 million, net of underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering costs of $1.0 million, following our IPO in May 2022.

We have incurred significant losses and negative cash flows from operations and incurred losses of $3.5 million and $6.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. During the six months ended June 30, 2023, and 2022, we had negative cash flows from operations of $2.9 million and $3.8 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2023, we had an accumulated deficit of $36.9 million. We had cash on hand (including short term deposits and restricted bank deposit) of $3.8 million, and long-term deposits, restricted bank deposits and restricted cash of $4.4 million, as of June 30, 2023. We monitor our cash flow projections on a current basis and take active measures to obtain the funding we require to continue our operations. However, these cash flow projections are subject to various uncertainties concerning their fulfillment, such as the ability to increase revenues due to lack of customers or decrease cost structure. Our transition to profitable operations is dependent on generating a level of revenue adequate to support our cost structure through growth of existing and new customers.

Our future capital requirements will be affected by many factors, including our revenue growth, the timing and extent of investments to support such growth, the expansion of sales and marketing activities, increases in general and administrative costs, repayment of principal of our existing credit line, working capital to support securing raw material supply and many other factors as described under “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report.

To the extent additional funds are necessary to meet our long-term liquidity needs as we continue to execute our business strategy, and cannot generate significant recurring revenues, profit and cash flow provided by operating activity, we anticipate that they will be obtained through the incurrence of additional indebtedness, additional equity financings or a combination of these potential sources of funds. However, such financing may not be available on favorable terms, or at all. In particular, the repercussions from inflation, economic uncertainty and a potential recession, as well as the war between Russia and the Ukraine, has resulted in, and may continue to result in, significant disruption of global financial markets, reducing our ability to access capital. If we are unable to raise additional funds when desired, such as the May 2023 Private Placement (as defined below), our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Equity Financings

On May 4, 2023, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement with an accredited investor (the “Investor”), pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue and sell to the Investor in a private placement (the “May 2023 Private Placement”) (i) 190,000 shares (the “Shares”) of Common Stock, (ii) 754,670 pre-funded warrants (the “Pre-Funded Warrants”) to purchase up to 754,670 shares of Common Stock and (iii) warrants to purchase up to 944,670 shares of Common Stock (“Common Warrants” and collectively with the Shares and the Common Warrants, the “Securities”) for a purchase price of $3.705 per share of Common Stock and related Common Warrant or $3.7049 per Pre-Funded Warrant and related Common Warrant, for a total aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $3.5 million. The Offering closed on May 8, 2023. The Common Warrants have an exercise price of $3.58 per share, are exercisable immediately upon issuance and expire five and one-half years following the issuance.

H.C. Wainwright & Co., LLC acted as the exclusive placement agent for the issuance and sale of the Securities. The Company has agreed to pay up to an aggregate cash fee equal to 7.0% of the gross proceeds received by the Company from the Offering. The Company also agreed to pay Wainwright $65,000 for non-accountable expenses and a management fee equal to 1.0% of the gross proceeds raised in the Offering. The Company has also granted to the Underwriter upon the consummation of the Offering, warrants to purchase up to 66,127 of the Company’s common stocks which carry the same terms as the common stock warrants described above (Note 11d3 to the condensed consolidated financial statements), except for the exercise price which reflect 125% of the share price in the Offering ($4.6313).

Cash Flows

The table below, for the periods indicated, provides selected cash flow information:

(U.S. dollars in thousands)	Six Months Ended June 30, 2023	Six Months Ended June 30, 2022
Net cash used in operating activities	$ (2,939)	$ (3,782)
Net cash provided by (used in) investing activities	677	(87)
Net cash provided by financing activities	2,780	16,221
Net change in cash	$ 518	$ 12,352

As of June 30, 2023, we had cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash of $4.8 million compared to $13.1 million of cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash as of June 30, 2022.

Operating Activities

Cash used in operating activities amounted to $2.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023, compared to $3.8 for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The decrease in cash used in operating activities was mainly due to decrease in trade receivables, offset by an increase in inventories.

Investing Activities

Net cash provided by investing activities was $0.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023, compared to cash used in investing activities of $0.09 for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The increase from the corresponding period was mainly due to changes in short term deposits.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was $2.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023, compared to $16.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2022. The cash flow from financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2023, resulted from proceeds from a private placement which closed on May 4, 2023 – see note 11(d) to the condensed consolidated financial statements. The cash flow from financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2022, resulted from proceeds from the Company's IPO in the amount of $15.4, net of underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering costs of $1.0 million. In addition, the increase is related to the private placement first and second closing. See notes 2 to the condensed consolidated financial statements.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements or relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial partnerships, such as entities often referred to as structured finance or special purpose entities.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our condensed consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The preparation of these condensed consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates, assumptions and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the applicable periods. We evaluate our estimates, assumptions and judgments on an ongoing basis. Our estimates, assumptions and judgments are based on historical experience and various other factors that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Different assumptions and judgments would change the estimates used in the preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements, which, in turn, could change the results from those reported.

Our management's discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations is based on our financial statements, which we have prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or FASB. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Our significant accounting policies include revenue from contracts with customers which is more fully described in the notes to our condensed consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We believe that these accounting policies discussed are critical to our financial results and to the understanding of our past and future performance, as these policies relate to the more significant areas involving management's estimates and assumptions. We consider an accounting estimate to be critical if: (1) it requires us to make assumptions because information was not available at the time or it included matters that were highly uncertain at the time we were making our estimate; and (2) changes in the estimate could have a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk.

Not required for a smaller reporting company.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports under the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow for timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

As required by Rule 13a-15(b) under the Exchange Act, our management, under the supervision and with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act). Based upon such evaluation and due to the material weakness described below, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures as of March 29, 2023 were not effective. In light of this fact, our management has performed additional analyses, reconciliations, and other post-closing procedures and has concluded that, notwithstanding the material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting, the condensed consolidated financial statements for the periods covered by and included in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q fairly present, in all material respects, our financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer do not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all error or fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Due to the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected.

Previously Identified Material Weakness and Plans to Remediate

In connection with the preparation of our financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 and as disclosed in our Annual Report, we identified a material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting relating to the lack of a sufficient number of finance personnel to allow for adequate segregation of duties that had not been remediated as of December 31, 2022. We concluded that the material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting occurred because, prior to our IPO, as a private company we did not have the necessary business processes, systems, personnel, and related internal controls necessary to satisfy the accounting and financial reporting requirements of a public company.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of a company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

As we have thus far not needed to comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, neither we nor our independent registered public accounting firm has performed an evaluation of our internal control over financial reporting in accordance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. In light of this deficiency, we believe that it is possible that certain additional control deficiencies and material weaknesses may have been identified if such an evaluation had been performed.

We are working to remediate the material weakness. Our remediation efforts are ongoing, and we will continue our initiatives to implement and document policies, procedures, and internal controls. We have taken steps to enhance our internal control environment and plan to take additional steps to remediate the deficiencies and address material weaknesses. Specifically:

- We will hire qualified personnel in our accounting department. We will continue to evaluate the structure of the finance organization and add resources as needed;
- We are implementing additional internal reporting procedures, including those designed to add strength to our review processes and improve our segregation of duties; and
- We are redesigning and implementing common internal control activities; and we will continue to establish policies and procedures and enhance corporate oversight over process-level controls and structures to ensure that there is appropriate assignment of authority, responsibility and accountability to enable remediating our material weaknesses.

In addition to the items noted above, as we continue to evaluate, remediate and improve our internal control over financial reporting, executive management may elect to implement additional measures to address control deficiencies or may determine that the remediation efforts described above require modification. Executive management, in consultation with and at the direction of our Audit Committee, will continue to assess the control environment and the above-mentioned efforts to remediate the underlying causes of the identified material weakness

Although we plan to complete this remediation process as quickly as possible, we are unable, at this time to estimate how long it will take; and our efforts may not be successful in remediating the deficiencies or material weakness. We believe our remediation actions will be effective in remediating the material weakness identified, and we continue to devote significant time and attention to these efforts. However, the material weakness will not be considered remediated until the applicable remedial processes and procedures have been in place for a sufficient period of time and management has concluded, through testing, that these controls are effective. Accordingly, the material weakness above is not remediated as of June 30, 2023.

Changes in Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the quarter ended June 30, 2023 that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls

In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. In addition, the design of disclosure controls and procedures must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and that management is required to apply judgment in evaluating the benefits of possible controls and procedures relative to their costs.

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q does not include a report of management's assessment regarding internal control over financial reporting as permitted in this transition period under the rules of the SEC for newly public companies.

Part II – Other Information

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

From time to time, we are involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. To the knowledge of our management, there are no legal proceedings currently pending against us which we believe would have a material effect on our business, financial position or results of operations and, to the best of our knowledge, there are no such legal proceedings contemplated or threatened.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Readers should carefully the risk factors set forth in the section titled "Risk Factors" included in our Annual Report. Our business involves significant risks. You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described in our Annual Report, together with all of the other information in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and including those set forth below, as well as our audited consolidated financial statements and related notes as disclosed in our Prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described in our Prospectus are not the only ones we face. Additional risk and uncertainties that we are unaware of or that we deem immaterial may also become important factors that adversely affect our business, including those listed below. The realization of any of these risks and uncertainties could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations, growth and future prospects as well as our ability to accomplish our strategic objectives. In that event, the market price of our common stock could decline and you could lose part or all of your investment.
